CHRIS CHRISTIE
Governor

October 8, 2010

The Honorable Tom Craddick
2010 National Chairman
American Legislative Exchange Council
Texas House of Representatives
1101 Vermont Avenue Northwest, Floor 11
Washington, D.C. 20005-3515

Dear Representative Craddick:

Thank you for your letter inviting the Governor to speak at the 2010 States and Nation Policy Summit taking place on December 1-3, 2010.

The Governor recognizes the value and importance of your event and all that you have done to organize and plan it. Unfortunately, he has an existing commitment, and we must regretfully decline your kind invitation.

On behalf of the Governor, please accept our best wishes for a most successful and enjoyable occasion.

Sincerely,

Greetings Kevin,

Please find the attached invitation for Governor Christie to speak at the upcoming American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) 2010 States & Nation Policy Summit this December in Washington D.C. A formal letter of invitation was also mailed to the Governor's office today. ALEC and its attendees would be delighted to have the Governor join us. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Thanks again,

Audrey

AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

The Honorable Chris Christie
Office of the Governor
PO Box 001
Trenton, NJ 08625

September 1, 2010

Dear Governor Christie:

On behalf of the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), we cordially invite you to be our keynote speaker at ALEC's 2010 States & Nation Policy Summit. This annual event, held this year on December 1-3, 2010, at the Grand Hyatt Washington hotel in Washington, D.C., will be attended by more than 600 state legislators, public policy experts, and business leaders from around the country. Past speakers have included presidents, foreign leaders, members of Congress, and Cabinet secretaries.

Specifically, we invite you to address the conference's attendees at one of the following plenary sessions: the plenary breakfast or luncheon Thursday, December 2; or the plenary breakfast or luncheon Friday, December 3.

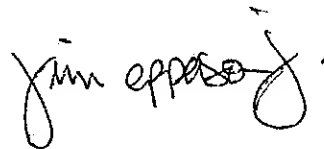

As you may know, ALEC is a nonpartisan membership organization whose members are committed to promoting policies based on the Jeffersonian principles of federalism, free markets, and individual liberty. ALEC also is unique in that we welcome the private sector as an equal partner with our state legislative members in crafting policy solutions. With that in mind, we know our members would greatly benefit from your insights and experience given the current economic issues facing our nation.

We sincerely appreciate your consideration of this invitation, and we look forward to hearing back from you or a member of your staff. To confirm or should you have any questions, please contact Mr. Michael Bowman, Senior Director of Policy at mbowman@alec.org or at (202) 742-8523 or Mr. Ron Scheberle, Executive Director at rscheberle@alec.org or at (202) 742-8505. Again, thank you.

Sincerely,

Representative Tom Craddick

March 3, 2011

Dear Governor Christie:

On behalf of the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), we cordially invite you to be our keynote speaker at ALEC's 2011 Annual Meeting. This annual event, held this year on August 3-6, 2010, at the Marriott in New Orleans, LA, will be attended by nearly 2,000 state legislators, public policy experts, and business leaders from around the country. Past speakers have included presidents, governors, foreign leaders, members of Congress, and Cabinet secretaries.

Specifically, we invite you to address the conference attendees at the plenary luncheon on Thursday, August 4. However, if this date doesn't work with your schedule and another date during the conference does we would be happy to make accommodations for the date that best fits your schedule.

As you are aware, ALEC members are committed to promoting policies based on the Jeffersonian principles of federalism, limited government, free market choices for consumers, lower taxes, and individual liberty. We would very much like to hear from you concerning your vision for New Jersey. We know our members would greatly benefit from your insights and plans for the Garden State given the current critical issues facing all chief executives of the nations' states.

We sincerely appreciate your consideration of this invitation, and we look forward to hearing back from you or a member of your staff. To confirm or should you have any questions, please contact Mr. Chaz Cirame, Senior Director of Membership at ccirame@alec.org or at (202) 742-8517 or Mr. Ron Scheberle, Executive Director at rscheberle@alec.org or at (202) 742-8505. Again, thank you.

Sincerely,

Representative Nobel Ellington
